

FAMILY FUN NIGHT

It's time to recharge as a family and what better way than to plan a whole evening of nothing but fun. Choose an idea below and get the party started!

COMEDY CENTRAL (Great for preschool – elementary ages)

POTENTIAL SUPPLIES:

- White sheet and white string lights for photo booth
- Silly photo booth props (mustache, wigs, hats, silly glasses, etc.)
- Set of dice
- Dinner
- Silly Supper printable*
- List of age-appropriate jokes
- Popcorn

STEP ONE: Start off the night with a Silly Supper. Use the printable and dice to have a dinner like no other.

STEP TWO: Set up a make-shift photo booth with the sheet and lights. Take turns dressing up and snapping some shots with the props.

STEP THREE: Pass the popcorn out and the list of jokes. Take turns standing up and cracking a few jokes. Rate each joke and see who can get the most laughs.

STEP FOUR: End the night by posting your family's favorite photo to social media. Use the hashtag #ParentCueFamilyFunNight so everyone can share in the fun!

FRISBEE FUN (Great for all ages)

POTENTIAL SUPPLIES:

- White sheet
- Duct Tape
- Several Plastic Frisbees

STEP ONE: Using the duct tape, create a grid on the sheet that looks like a tic-tac-toe board. Take it outside and set up the Frisbees close by.

STEP TWO: Bring your family outside and choose teams. Using the Frisbees, take turns trying to get three of your team's Frisbees in a row for tic-tac-toe. Each time a player makes it into a square, the everyone has to give the thrower a compliment.

STEP THREE: Play several rounds. In the end, the winning team has to cook the losing team dinner. As you eat, discuss the importance of serving others with our words and actions!

VARIATION FOR OLDER KIDS: Using an old bedsheet, draw the shape of the Frisbee inside each square. Give bonus points to anyone who lands part of their Frisbee in the circle. It's fair to knock each other's Frisbees off, resulting in the loss of those bonus points!

GLOW-IN-THE-ALLEY (Great for elementary – middle school ages)

POTENTIAL SUPPLIES:

- Glow Sticks
- (10) tall, empty plastic bottles with a glow stick inside it
- Hamper ball filled with glow sticks (or just a regular ball)
- (1) white t-shirt per family member
- Paint or t-shirt markers

STEP ONE: Gather your family together and pass out the shirts. Tell them that you're going to have an indoor bowling night. Divide into two teams, then spend the first part of the evening choosing silly bowling team names and decorate your shirts together.

STEP TWO: Put on your shirts and find a dark place in your house – like a basement or a hallway. Line up the bottles in a triangular shape.

STEP THREE: Take turns knocking over the bottles with the hamper ball. Keep score. The losing team has to plan the next family night.
