Acts 27:1-28:10

travel all around starting new churches.

He told the story of Jesus everywhere he went even when it got him into trouble.

Paul had been arrested and thrown into prison.

He was a Roman citizen and it was his right for a trial.

But he had to take a dangerous trip to Rome.

So Paul and several other prisoners were handed over to the Roman commander named Julius.

They set sail to a harbor called Fair Havens.

Paul warned the crew that the voyage would be dangerous and loss of lives, but the captain didn't listen.

They set sail but there was a great hurricane storm and after many days the crew feared the ship would sink.

Everyone, except Paul, had given up hope.

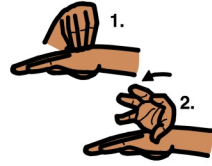

Paul stood strong and continued to pray.

KC July 16 2023 Pg 3

He said to the crew,

"You should've taken my advice..."

keep up your courage

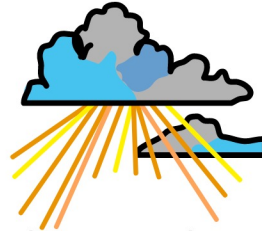

because no one will be lost.

Only the ship will be destroyed.

Last night, an angel of the Lord appeared to me.

The angel said,

"Do not be afraid.

You must go on trial before Caesar.

God has shown his grace by sparing all the lives of those sailing with you.'

Continue to be brave.

I have faith in God. It will happen just as he told me but we must run the ship onto the beach of some island."
