Hebrews 11:1 (NirV)

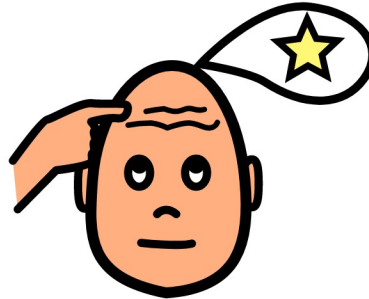

Faith

is being sure

of what we hope for.

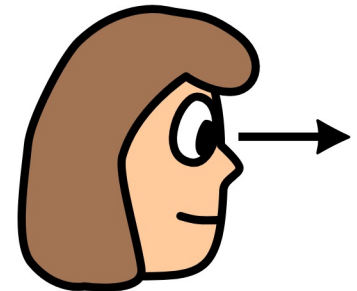

It is being sure

of what we do not see.

Acts 9:10-31

Last week we learned that Saul went to Damascus

to arrest Jesus' followers.

Instead, Jesus spoke to him through a beam of light from Heaven.

Jesus wanted Saul to go to the city and wait.

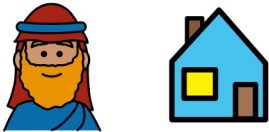

When Saul stood up to go, he discovered that he could not see.

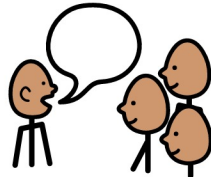

When he reached the city, he prayed to God

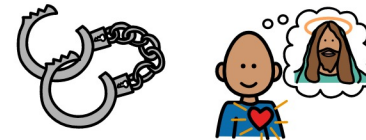

and didn't eat or drink for 3 days.

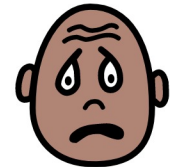

During that time, Saul was staying with a man named Judas.

News spread all over that Saul was coming

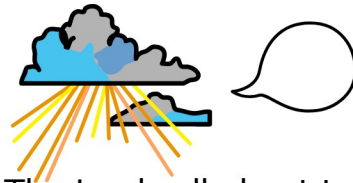

to arrest Jesus' followers.

The new believers were afraid.

A man named Ananias was afraid too.

The Lord called out to Ananias and said,

"Go to the house of Judas. Ask for Saul, he is praying".

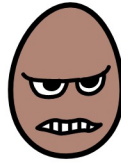

In a vision - Saul saw a man named Ananias place hands on him.

Ananias said to the Lord,
"I have heard that this man Saul has done

great harm to the people of Jerusalem."

But God said, "Go, I have chosen this man to work
for me..."

Ananias chose to trust
God with his fears.

He trusted that God could change someone.

He went to Judas' house.
He found Saul

there praying and unable to see.

He placed his hands on Saul's shoulders and said,

"The Lord has sent me
so you can see again..."

Saul was filled with the Holy Spirit and immediately able to see again.

He wanted to be baptized
in Jesus' name.

He even began preaching about Jesus.

Some of the religious leaders plotted to kill Saul,

but Ananias helped

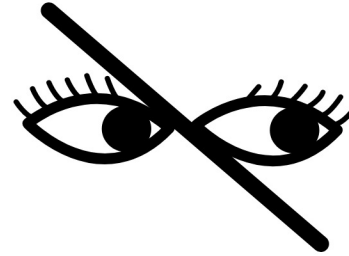

Saul escape Damascus.
