Genesis 40-41 (NIrV)

God had given

Joseph a gift for understanding dreams.

Joseph shared one dream that caused trouble with his brothers.

They sold him to be enslaved in Egypt for 10 years.

God had also given Joseph the gift of wisdom and the ability to lead others.

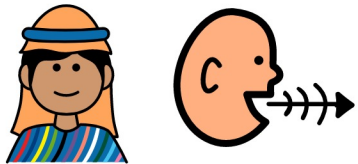

So Joseph was put in charge of all the other prisoners.

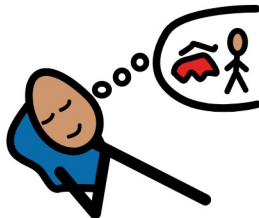

One day, Joseph saw that two other prisoners were upset about a dream they had.

Joseph was able to tell what the dream had meant

because of his gift from God.

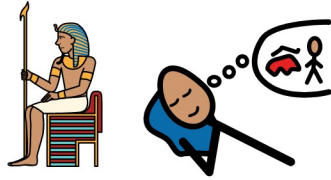

Everything he told them came true.

One of the prisoners was set free a few days later. Years passed by.

One day, Pharaoh had a dream that he didn't understand. No one else could tell him either.

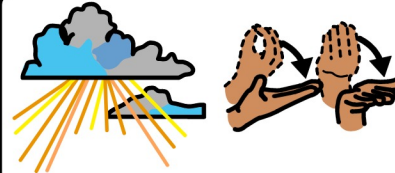

The prisoner that had a dream told Pharaoh about Joseph.

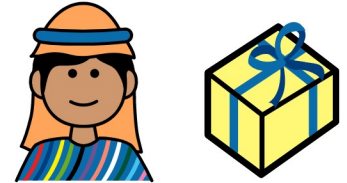

Pharaoh asked for Joseph.

He explained the dream to Joseph.

God had given

Joseph a gift.

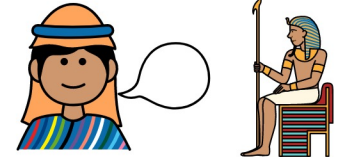

Joseph was able to interpret Pharaoh's dream.

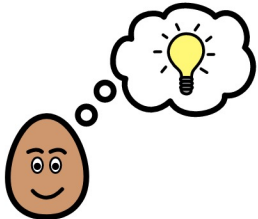

The dreams meant that Egypt would go through 7 years of having plenty of food and 7 years of famine (having no food).

Joseph told Pharaoh a creative plan to solve the problem.

This led to Pharaoh making

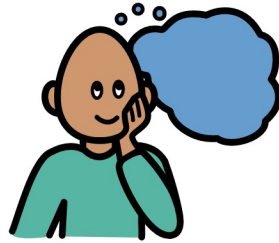

Joseph second in command of all Egypt.

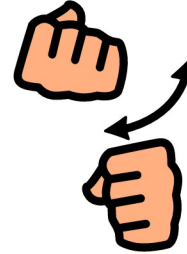

The plan worked and all the people were saved.
