2 Kings 5

This week, we learn about a prophet named Elisha and his servant Gehazi.

During this time, God's people were ruled by kings.

Naaman was army commander of the king of Aram.

He became very sick with leprosy - a skin disease.

He was an outcast and he was desperate for help.

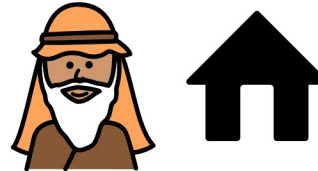

A servant girl from Israel, who knew God,

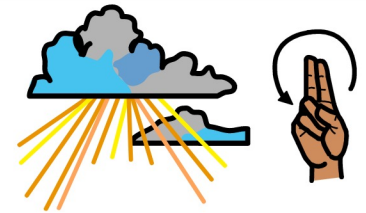

said that a prophet named Elisha - could help Naaman.

Naaman made a long journey to Elisha's home in Israel.

God used

Elisha

to heal Naaman by telling him that he had to dip in the murky (dark and dirty) Jordan River 7 times.

So Naaman did what he was told and he was healed.

Naaman offered Elisha some money

Elisha did not accept it because it was God who healed Naaman.

So Naaman went back home.

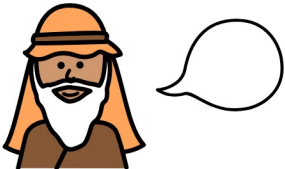

Then, Gehazi went after Naaman and told him that his master (Elisha) wanted the money and some clothes, after all.

Then after Gehazi put away all the money, he went back to Elisha.

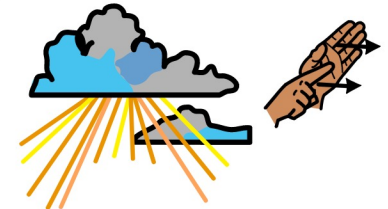

Elisha asked, "Where have you been?"

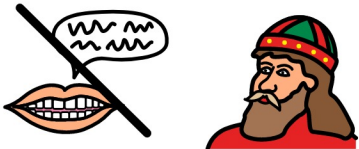

Gehazi lied and said, "I didn't go anywhere."

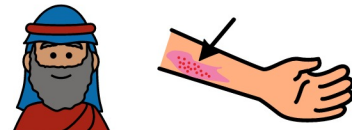

Elisha replied,

"God showed me

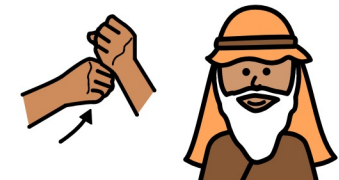

how you lied to Naaman and now are lying to me.

Because of that, you will have the same skin disease as Naaman had."

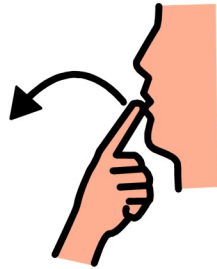

Gehazi had lost

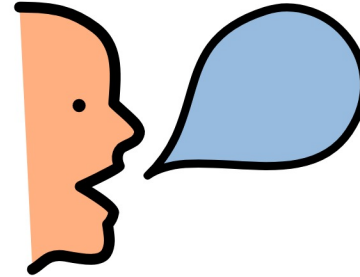

Elisha's trust.
