2 Samuel 6:12b - 22a

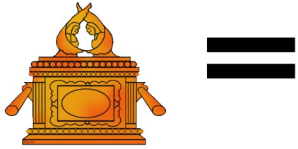

After David became King,
He reclaimed Israel and
rebuilt the city,

but the ark of the covenant was missing.

It was at Obed-Edom's
home.

The ark of the covenant represented

the home of the people.

So David went down to get the ark of the covenant

and bring it back to Jerusalem.

He was so overwhelmed with excitement that he danced and celebrated.

He celebrated all that God had done for him.

The whole community
of Israel helped

carry the ark of the covenant.

They shouted and blew
trumpets.

Michal, who was Saul's daughter and David's
wife,

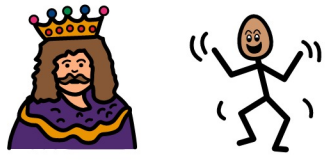

didn't like that David
was dancing.

She told him that he was acting like a fool.

But David continued to celebrate.

He sacrificed offerings to the Lord and blessed people in the name of the Lord.

He passed out cake.

Then all of the people went home.

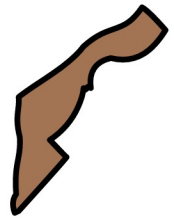

When David returned home,

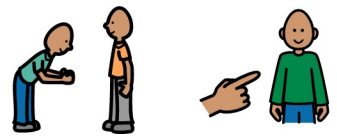

Michal said,

"You are the king of Israel.

You have brought honor to yourself today, haven't you?

You acted like a fool!"

David replied,

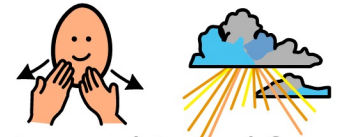

"I did it to honor the Lord... "

David was willing to make himself

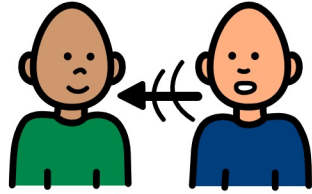

look foolish

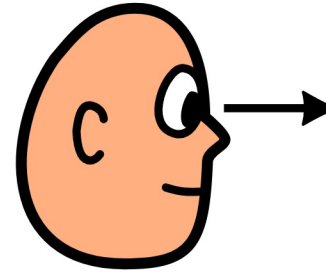

to worship God for being faithful to the Israelites.
