Isaiah 9:6 (NIRV)

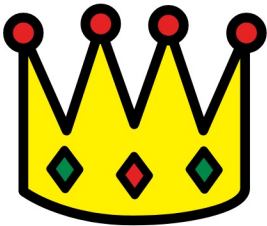

A child will be born to us.

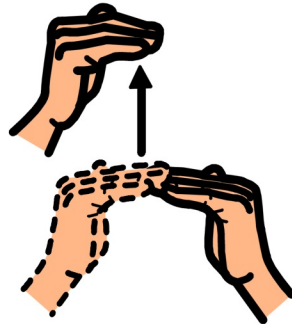

A son

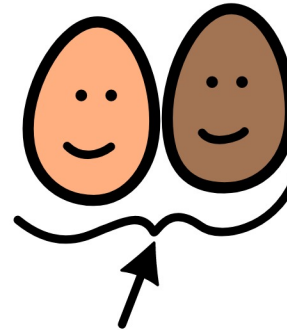

will be given to us.

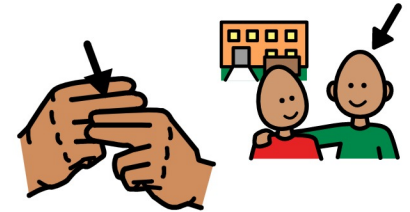

He will rule

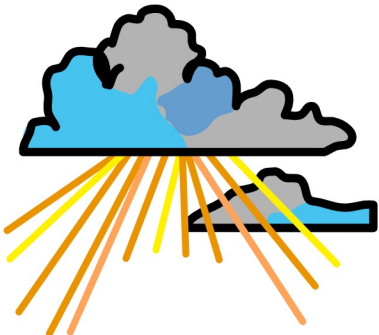

over

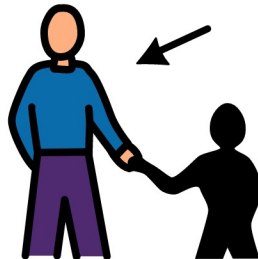

us.

And he will be called Wonderful Adviser and Mighty God.

He will also be called Father

Who Lives Forever

and Prince Who Brings Peace.

Micah 5:2; Isaiah 9:6-7; 7:14-15

God spoke to a prophet named Isaiah. Through Isaiah, God sends a message to give hope to His people as they faced exile.

God promised to send a Savior.

A child would be born that would become a mighty ruler,

a King who would be a
mighty adviser,

and the best kind of father that always loves and protects us;

a Prince that would bring peace between people and God.

Isaiah said, "There will be no limit of how great

His authority is.

The peace He brings will never end. It will last forever.

The Lord's great love will make sure that happens."

He said the Lord himself will give you a sign that the virgin

will give birth to a baby, a son, and he will be called Immanuel (God with us).

KC December 3 2023 Pg 3

God would come to live with us in the form of a person.

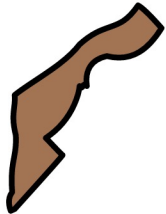

God spoke through another prophet named Micah. He said,

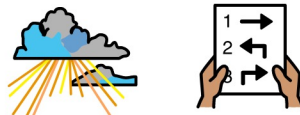

"Bethlehem, you may not be an important town in the nation of Judah, but out of you will come for me a ruler over Israel..."

Even in the midst of a dark time, God's rescue plan was under way.

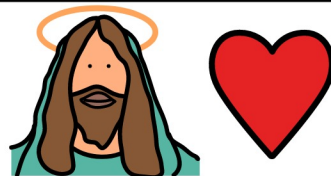

God would send a king

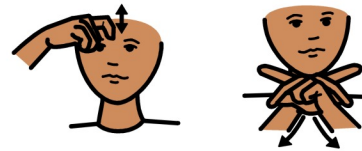

to be born as a baby

in the little town of Bethlehem.

That King would be filled with love, wisdom, would protect and bring peace between people and God.

Even though it took time,

God

kept his promises, and because of that, we can still have hope today.
