Colossians 3:12 (NIRV)

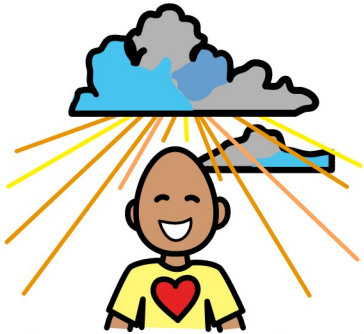

You are

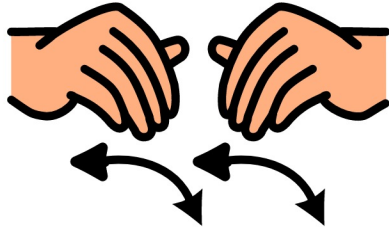

God's chosen people.

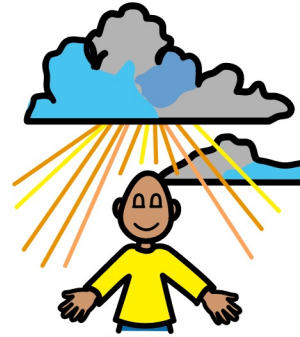

You are

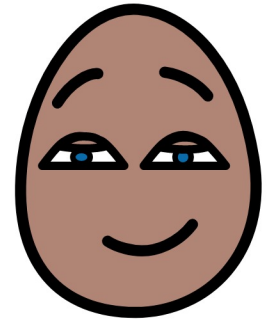

holy and dearly loved.

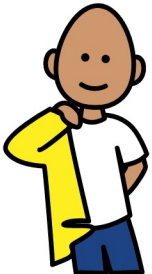

So put on

tender mercy

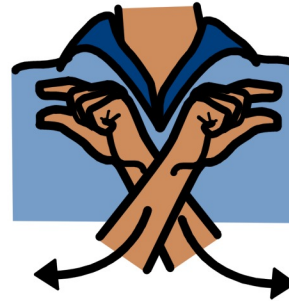

and kindness

as if they were your clothes.

Don't be proud.

Be gentle

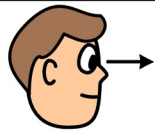

and patient.

Matthew 8:1-4; 19:13-15;
9:10-13 (NIRV)

We start this month in the book of Matthew as we look at

three moments of kindness

in Jesus' life. Whether Jesus was healing

the sick, blessing the children, or sharing meals

with people who others
seemed to disregard,

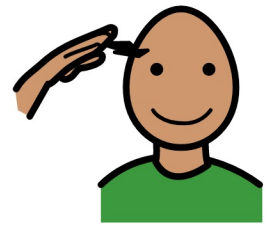

He was full of love and
kindness.

Jesus made sure

that everyone

knew they were

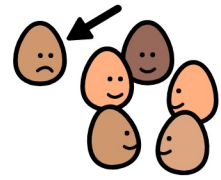

valuable in God's eyes.

One day, after Jesus was finished teaching, a man with a terrible skin disease

threw himself at Jesus'
feet.

He was alone and no one
wanted to be near him.

The sick man said to Jesus,
"Lord, if you are willing to make me well, then do it."

Jesus reached out his hand
and touched the man and said,
"I am willing to do it,

be clean." The man was healed.

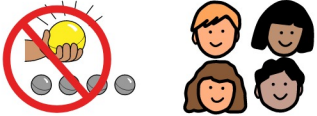

Because of Jesus' kindness, the man could return to be with his family.

Another time when Jesus showed kindness, was when families brought their children to see Jesus.

During this time, people thought that children had no value.

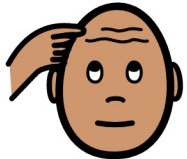

Some of Jesus' followers tried to stop it.

But Jesus stepped in and said,

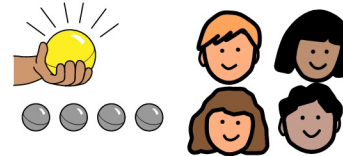

"Let the little children come to me..."

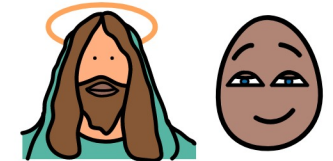

He didn't care what other people thought.

He showed everyone how valuable children are.

Finally, Jesus showed kindness to people who others didn't like or want to be around.

Jesus spent time with tax collectors and sinners.

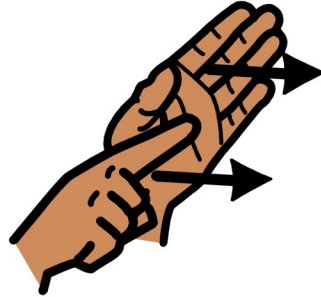

Kindness is a virtue that starts with God and

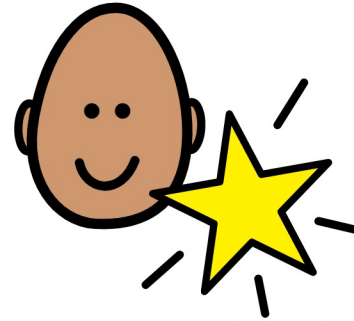

and is proof that the Holy Spirit is working through us.
