Exodus 32:1-35 (NIRV)

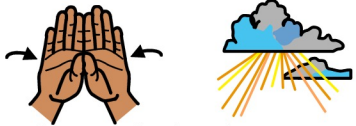

During this time, the Israelites were camped out near Mount Sinai.

God called out to Moses from Mount Sinai.

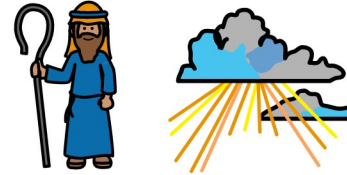

God wanted to give the Israelites a special set of rules to help them stay close to God and stay safe.

So God called Moses to come to the mountain top.

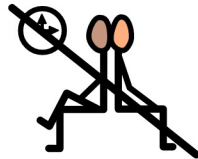

Moses was with God for 40 days and 40 nights.

He left his brother Aaron and the rest of the Israelites to wait. The Israelites became impatient.

They became so impatient that they forgot all the ways that God had already provided for them.

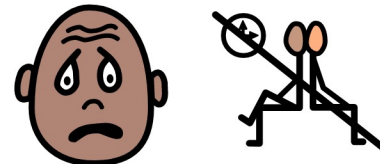

Rather than waiting patiently, the Israelites disobeyed God.

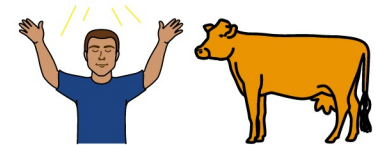

They built a golden calf and began to worship it

instead of worshipping God.

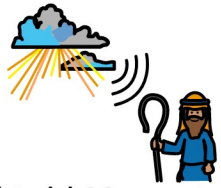

In their fear and impatience,

they chose to worship a golden calf.

God told Moses to go down to the Israelites as they became sinful.

Moses carried with him two stone tablets.

When Moses got close to camp and saw that the Israelites were worshipping the golden calf,

he threw the stone tablets and they broke.

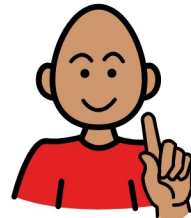

Moses was so angry

that he took the golden calf

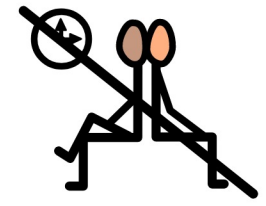

and burned it in the fire.

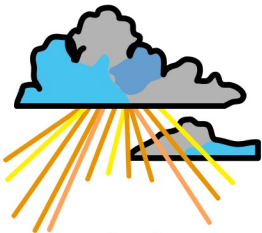

Even though

the Israelites

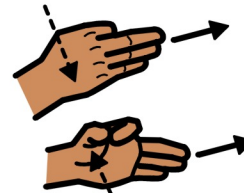

were impatient,

God

remained

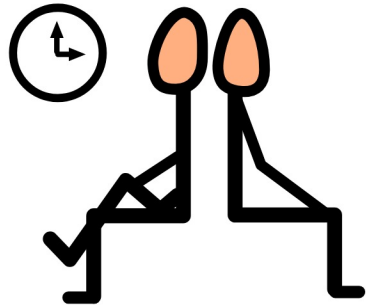

faithful

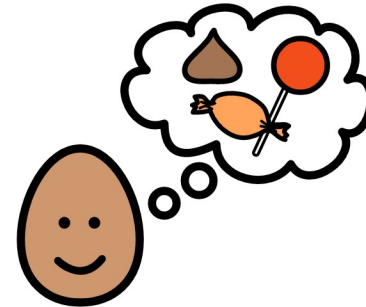

and continued to provide for the Israelites.
