Psalm 27:14 (NIRV)

Be strong

lose hope.

Wait

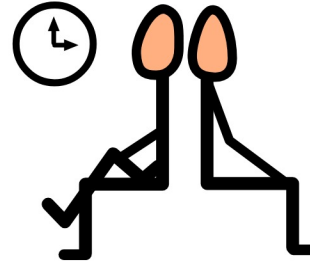

for the LORD.

Luke 2:25-35 (NIrV)

God's people, the Israelites, had been waiting for hundreds of years

for God's rescuer - the Savior - to come.

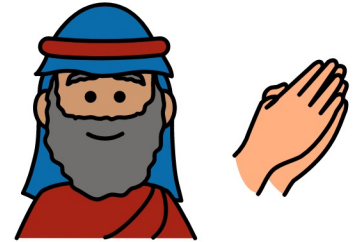

Times were very difficult for the Israelites.

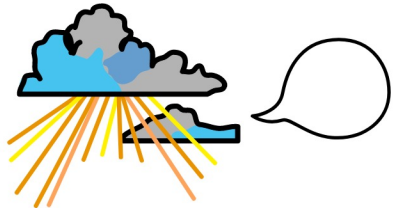

Today, we learn about a man named Simeon.

Simeon showed love for God and others in everything he did.

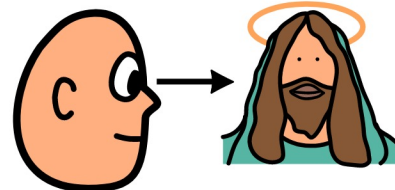

One day, Simeon prayed and

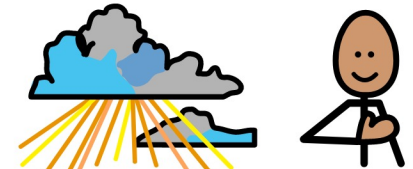

God's Spirit spoke to him and said,

"You will not die before you see the Lord's Messiah."

God had promised Simeon that he would see God's rescuer before he died.

Simeon patiently waited a long time for God's promise.

Finally, one day God's Spirit prompted Simeon to go to the temple courtyard.

Simeon went to the temple and while he was there he saw baby Jesus. At that time, Mary and Joseph had brought Jesus to be baptized.

Simeon asked to hold baby Jesus. While holding Jesus,

Simeon declared that Jesus was

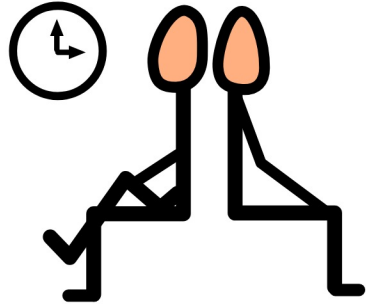

God's Messiah and that

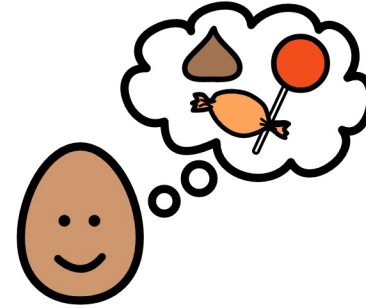

Jesus had come to rescue everyone.
