Genesis 13:5-18 (NIrV)

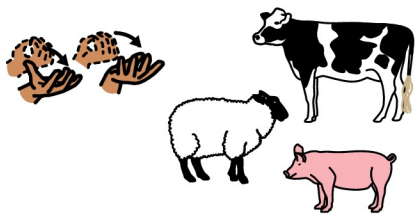

This week we learn about two men,

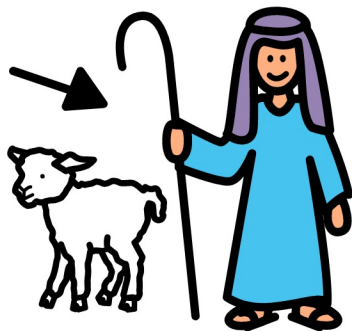

Abram and his nephew Lot.

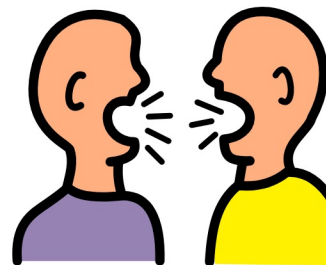

They were in a new land where God had called them to be.

There, Abram and Lot had gained many livestock and sheep.

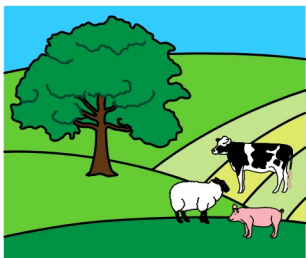

Their herdsmen

starting arguing because there wasn't enough

land for both of the men's herds.

Instead of joining the argument, Abram took Lot aside and chose to make peace with Lot

by letting Lot choose the land that he wanted first.

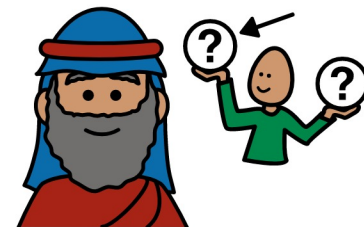

Abram could have taken the land he wanted first because he was the head of the family and that would have been fair.

Instead, Abram trusted God

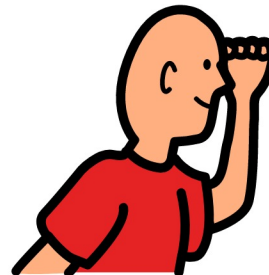

and allowed Lot to choose first.

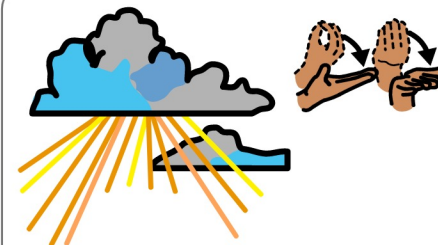

As Abram stood on his new land,

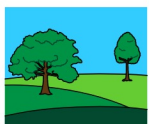

God spoke to him and said,

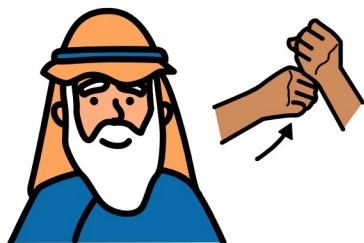

"Look around from where you are.

I will give you all the land that you see. I will give it forever to you and your family that comes after you... "

Abram trusted

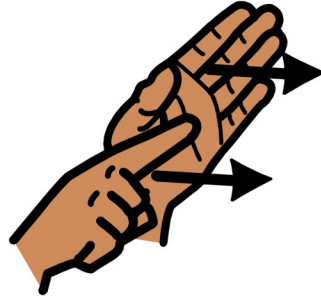

God's promise. Abram showed that he trusted God to take care of him no matter what.
