Romans 12:18 (NIRV)

This week we learn about something

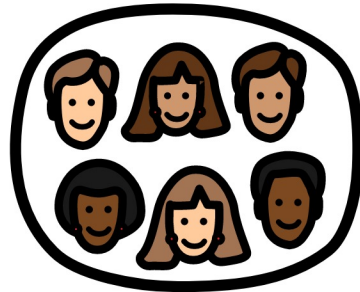

Paul wrote to the Romans.

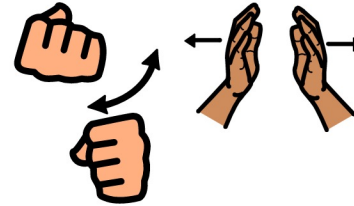

"If possible,

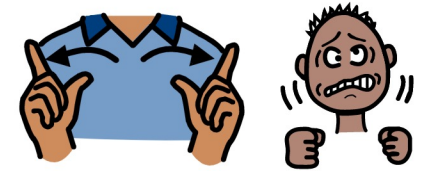

live in peace

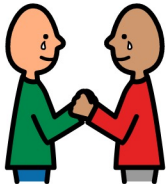

with everyone.

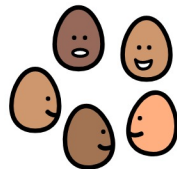

Do that as much as you can."

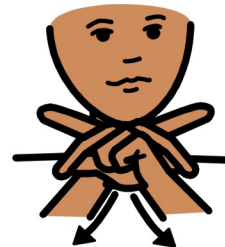

This is a big challenge!

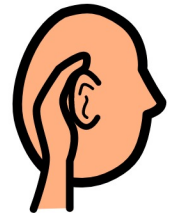

Paul was talking about how important it is for us to do everything we can to restore relationships and make connections with people around us.

He was talking about REAL peace - choosing to listen to people that we may not agree with and showing them you care. Show them it is more important to listen than to win an argument.

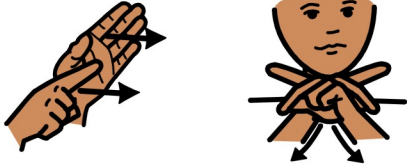

We can't control what others do,

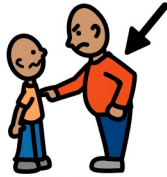

but we can control how we respond.

When we choose to control our words and actions,

we show others that we have the power of peace.

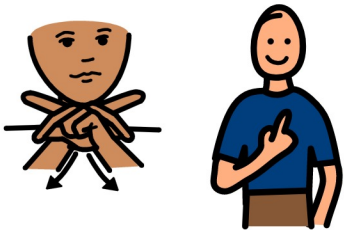

We should never let anyone bully us, but we can tell an adult about the situation.

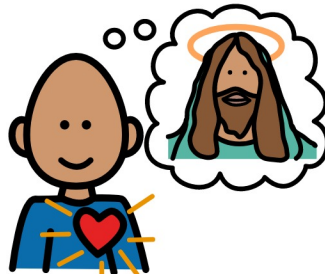

We can also make ways to restore relationships with others.

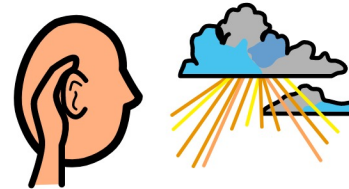

Not everyone will listen when we try to make peace,

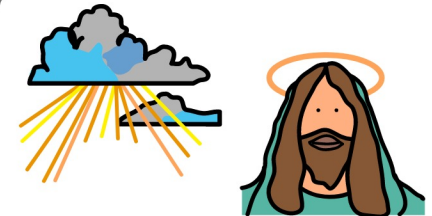

but we can still have peace inside of us.

When we walk in step with Jesus and listen to God's spirit in us, we can live in peace with everyone.

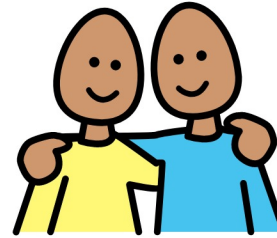

After all, this is what God did for us through Jesus!
