Proverbs 17:22 (NIRV)

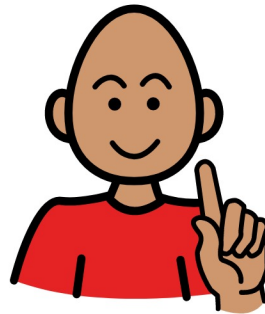

A cheerful

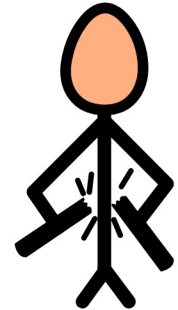

heart

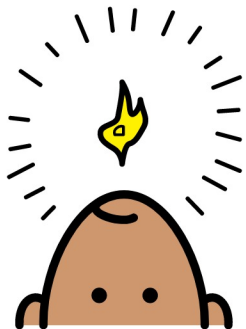

makes you healthy.

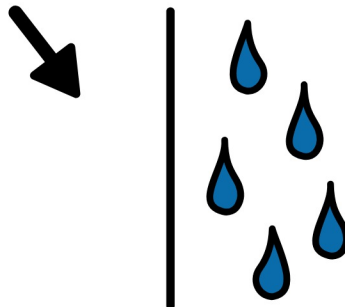

But

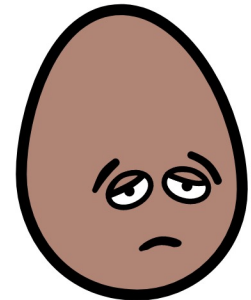

a broken

spirit

dries

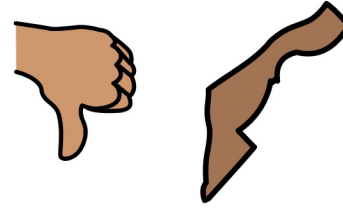

you up.

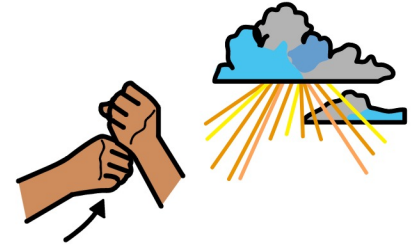

Habakkuk 3:17-18
(NirV)

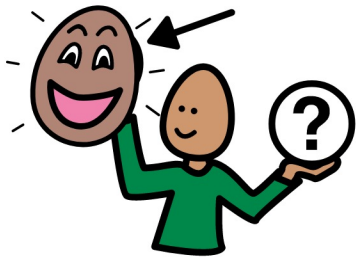

This week we learn
about a man named Habakkuk.

Many things were going wrong in Habakkuk's world,

but he chose to trust
God

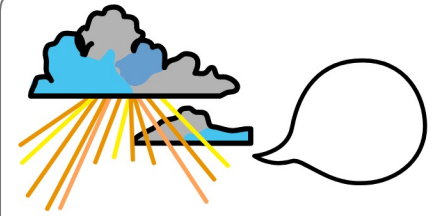

and choose joy.

Habakkuk called on God for help

to come and fix all of the terrible things that were happening.

God answered and
told Habakkuk to write it all down.

So Habakkuk wrote:

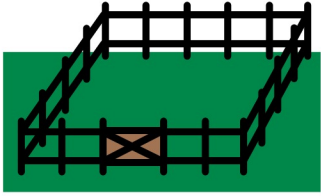

The fig trees might
not bud.

The vines might not produce any grapes.

The olive crops might fail. The fields may not produce any food.

There might not be any sheep in the pens.

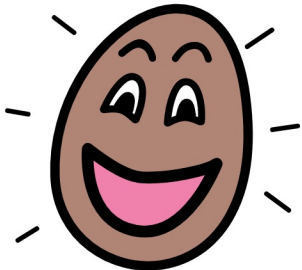

There might not be any cattle in the barns.

But I will still be glad because of what the Lord has done.

God my Savior fills me with joy.

Habakkuk ultimately found joy because of God's faithfulness and love. Nothing could take that away.

There are many things that can go wrong in our lives that we cannot control.

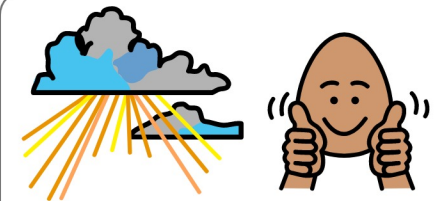

But we can control how we respond. We can choose to focus on God and remember how God has helped us in the past. Remember how

He promises to make everything right in the future.
