Psalm 119:105 (NIrV)

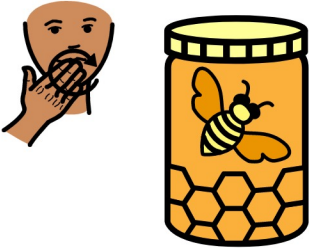

Psalm 119 is the longest chapter in the entire Bible.

It shares how valuable and beautiful

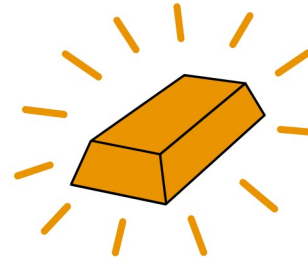

God's words are.

God's words are sweeter than honey and better than

thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

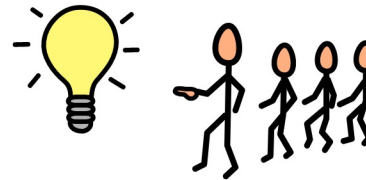

David writes in Psalm 119:105

"Your word is like a lamp

that shows me the way.

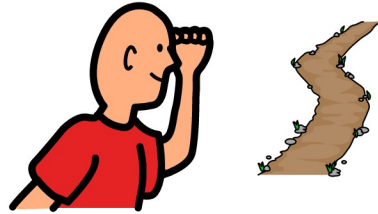

It is like a light that guides me."

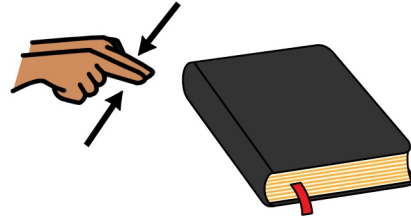

When David wrote this, there was no electricity.

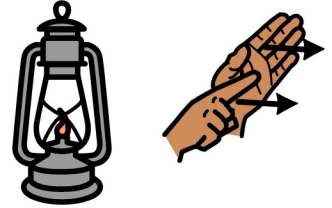

People had oil lamps to light their way. When people came to dark places, they'd use their lamps to find their way.

In the same way, God's word is like a light, showing us how to make wise choices when things seem dark and confusing.

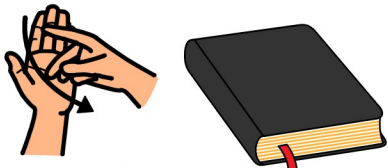

We will face difficult times and have to make hard choices.

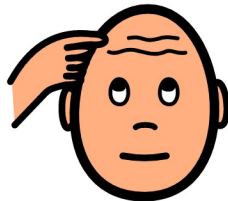

But God's word is always available to help us make wise choices.

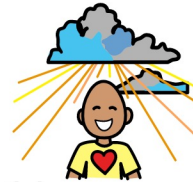

The best way to make God's word a light in our life is to make God's word a part of our life. We can commit to reading the Bible daily.

We can memorize scripture and talk about it with others.

The Bible can guide us to know more about ourselves, how to love God, trust Jesus, and care for others.
