Revelation 21, 22:1-5

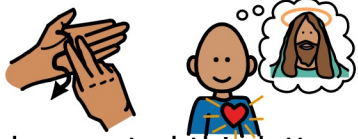

This week, we learn from a letter that was written by one of Jesus' close friends, John.

He wrote the letter to a group of people while he was in exile and couldn't go anywhere.

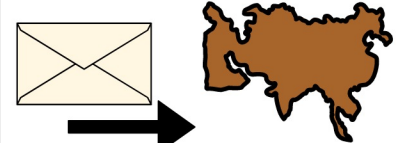

John wanted this letter to be read to all the Jesus followers.

God told John

to record everything he saw and heard and send it to the people of Asia Minor.

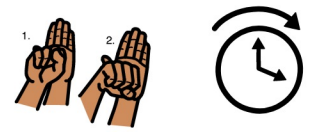

This letter he wrote is called the book of Revelation.

Jesus gave John

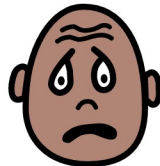

special messages, or visions, about all the things that would happen soon and things that would happen closer to the end of time.

Some of the things that Jesus told John were terrible. Others were incredible and some things were difficult to understand.

The ending

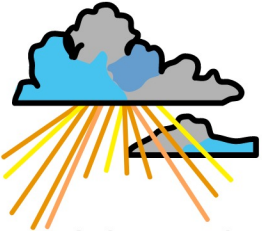

was the most incredible part that John shared.

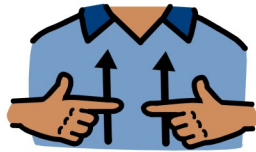

John wrote that one day

there would be no more pain or sadness and that God

would live

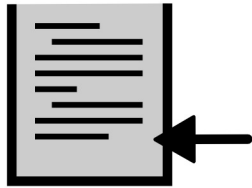

with us

forever.

God promises

that in the end,

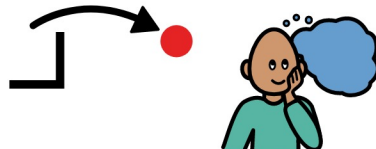

He will make

all things new.

God is preparing something amazing that is beyond our imagination for those of us who believe and follow Jesus.
