John 6:1-13 (NIrV)

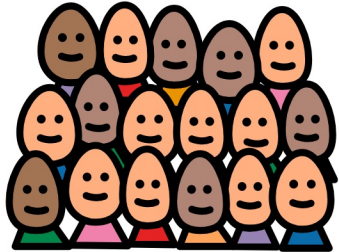

One day, Jesus and His disciples traveled across the Sea of Galilee.

Jesus went up to a mountain to sit with His disciples.

A huge crowd gathered with them to listen to Jesus' teaching.

It was time for a meal, but they didn't have food or money to buy food.

There were thousands of people there and they were hungry.

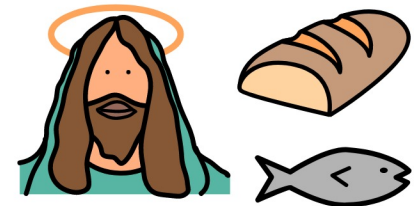

One little boy had brought some food. He had 5 loaves of bread and some fish that he was willing to share.

Jesus told His disciples to have the people sit down.

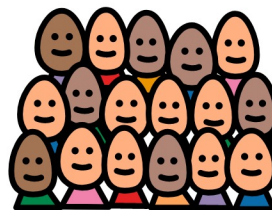

Then Jesus took the loaves of bread and fish and gave thanks.

Jesus began passing out the loaves of bread and fish to the crowd. There was enough for everyone to eat as much as they wanted.

After everyone was finished, Jesus told the disciples to collect the leftovers.

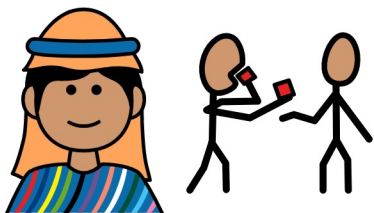

They gathered what was left and collected twelve baskets with the remaining bread and fish.

It was a miracle!

The little boy chose to give what he had to share.

Jesus used that small gift to perform a miracle that fed thousands of hungry people.
